

Antonio Rodriguez: Hey! I know that guy!

- 22 years in Florida
- Saw snow for the first time in December
- Enjoys a good pie chart
- First program was on the TI-83 I still use.
- Good at facial recognition, horrible with names.

One Week Lesson

- The term is “convolve” not “convolute”, though both are accurate.
- Finally know what unsharp masking is in photoshop.
- Now know how to 'open a can' with canny's edge detection
- When in doubt, comment it out
